

Grower and Adviser Study Tour Application Checklist

Have you considered:

- ✓ Purpose of the proposed travel. Have you clearly identified the learning objective of the travel, or the benefit to the grains industry, and how this will be addressed by the travel?
- ✓ Timing of the study tour. Will you be able to view the circumstances (e.g. sowing, low rainfall) that are aligned to the purpose of the tour where you plan to visit?
- ✓ Availability of proposed participants. Have you approached the proposed participants, and confirmed they will be available at the intended time of the tour, to undertake the activities?
- ✓ Scope and benefit of impact. What will be the impact of the tour on participants' on farm practices. How will you extend the learnings or benefit beyond the tour participants?
- ✓ Proposed itinerary. Is the itinerary aligned with the learning objective, have you researched activities or sought to engage expertise where appropriate?
- ✓ GRDC's RD&E Plan. Does the proposed travel or objective relate to a Key Investment Target or the Capacity and Ability Framework, and have you demonstrated this?
- ✓ Proposed budget. GRDC is unlikely to support an application where more than 50% of the cost of travel is sought and value for money is not evident.
- ✓ Grower representation. Are at least 75% of the group participants growers?
- ✓ Additional information. Do you have supporting information? If so, have you listed the attachments on the application?